DOYLESTOWN, June 23—In order that suit might be entered, letters of administration have been granted Charles Umstead, Maple and Bellevue avenues, Langhorne, in the estate of Arthur Umstead.

Arthur Umstead, 23, single, was killed November 22, last, in a two-car accident opposite Beechwood Cemetery, Bensalem township. His heirs are his parents, Charles and Mary Umstead; a brother, Charles W., and a sister, Virginia May.

The drivers of the two cars involved, William Kaye, Jr., 21, of Langhorne, and Frank Hammond, 22, of Woodbourne, were convicted of involuntary manslaughter.

In the crash three were injured, the two drivers, and also Winfield S. Miller, Langhorne.

According to police records the Hammond car was being followed by that operated by Kaye, the machines travelling north on spur 150 (Newportville road) early on the morning of Nov. 22nd. It is stated the two failed to halt at a "stop" sign at a dead-end, travelled across Route 513, through a small wire fence enclosing "Windy Hill Farm," formerly "Greenwood Farm," 135 feet inside the fence and crashed against a stump. The second car crashed into the first when the lead car was brought to a sudden halt, it is claimed.

NEWTOWN, June 23—The Bucks County Natural Science Association was unable to carry out its complete plans for a field trip due to the inclemency of the weather Saturday.

Only one of the four visits previously arranged was made and this was to the home of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Carson this borough, where about 20 members from various communities were on hand to enjoy the plantings.

Among the trees seen were a mossy cup oak, turkey oak, Carolina hemlock, white fir and a Franklin gordonia. The history of the Franklin oak, it was said, goes back to an early Philadelphia botanist, Bartram. It has attractive leaves, beautiful flowers and unusual seed pods.

Shrubs admired on the Carson property include wide-leaved evergreens, rhododendrons, azaleas, hollies, the red-veined and red-stemmed bellflower and various representatives of the heath family.

The flower garden was found to be quite extensive, and there were found delphinium, sweet William, poppies, violas and primroses. The herb section also proved quite interesting, and the lavender and old-fashioned sage were found in good bloom. The rose garden had many varieties of hybrid tea roses, and the lily pond contained many varieties of water lilies.

The grape gardens included the Niagara, Delaware, Golden and Concord varieties, all of which gave promise of fine fruit. It was noted also that blueberries are being developed on the Carson property.

The vegetable garden also was quite extensive and claiming the attention of the visitors were long rows of Thomas Laxton peas, the pods of which were well filled. A number of plants native to the New Jersey barrens were also noted.

The next meeting of the society will be held on the grounds of the Friends' meeting house, here, on July 17, when Mrs. Paul H. Buckingham, Ivyland, will give pages from a naturalist's diary, and Harold T. Green, curator of the museum of the Academy of Natural Sciences, Philadelphia, will give an illustrated talk on his recent trip to Africa to which place he went on the interests of the academy.

CONVENTION SUMMARY

Goernor Dewey took a commanding position for the Republican nomination for President yesterday when Senator Edward Martin withdrew as Pennsylvania's "favorite son" candidate and said he would place Mr. Dewey's name in nomination. This development was quickly followed by reports that delegates in such vital states as New Jersey, Illinois and Massachusetts were showing signs of wavering in their anti-Dewey stand.

The Philadelphia convention listened to repeated attacks on President Truman and the Democrats until former President Hoover brought the delegates back to international affairs. "Every important government, including our own," he said, "has broken its promises to mankind." He denounced Russia's ruling "tyrants" and warned American "totalitarian liberals," whom he called "fuzzy-minded." The main purpose of the convention, he said, is not to name candidates or adopt a platform of "improvised platitudes," but "to feed the reviving fires of spiritual fervor" among Americans.

Senator Martin's action left Pennsylvania's 73 delegates in an uncertain state. It was estimated that at least 35 would follow him into the Dewey camp despite the resentment of Governor Duff, the delegation's leader.

The platform scheduled to be adopted today promised continued support of the European Recovery Program within tightened economic limits and a restricted extension of the Reciprocal Trade Program. It contained a strong pro-Israel plank, an anti-Communist pledge and a broad civil-rights program.

Myron W. Harris, Esq., reported progress in the matter of borough zoning, and Robert May told of plans for street repairs for the next year or two.

Robert Carter reported investigating possible places for dumping borough trash, and suggested a spot at Morrisville that is being filled up in this manner.

CONVENTION HALL, PHILADELPHIA, June 23—(INS)—The Republican National Convention drives to its crucial point today—the nomination of the GOP candidate for President of the United States.

The terrific confidence of victory in November which has surcharged the conclave since it began last Monday is being hammered home again by the speakers to be heard before nominations open.

Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr. of Massachusetts, chairman of the Resolutions Committee, likewise sounded the victory keynote in presenting a GOP platform calling for "collective security," new tax cuts, prosperity through free enterprise, and stern opposition to Communism.

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, after a hectic night of activity among handlers of the rival candidates, has the nomination within his grasp unless a real political miracle stops him.

Meanwhile, Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana, House majority leader, asserted in his message to the convention:

"This election is not a mere strife between political parties.

"It is a decisive battle between those who believe in the American way of life and those who would substitute totalitarian practices.

"This campaign is not a mere political campaign. It is a mobilization of all our talents and energies for the America in which we believe."

Halleck promised that a Republican Congress, cooperating with a Republican president, will complete the job of throwing out the "New Deal termites—the planners, the plotters, and the borers from within," who, he said, "have been in every nook and cranny of our national house."

APPEAR AT COUNCIL

LANGHORNE, June 23—That a better water supply be furnished to improve fire protection conditions here was asked by Charles Praul and Charles Wainright, representing Langhorne Fire Company. The request was placed before borough council a few night ago.

Council took the matter into consideration, and received suggestions from firemen on the subject. Mr. Praul told of the fire company's plan to get new apparatus, which he said, will be delivered in about six months.

It was noted that 80 percent of the fire calls are from out-of-town, and that most of them are for grass fires. Construction of a tower to be used in the drying of hose was also taken into consideration.

Robert Neely received permission to make connections with the water system for a new house he plans to build.

Members of council showed interest in the formation of a county association of boroughs. Council was requested by the Kauffman Brothers for better lighting on Green street, and suggestion was made that the Philadelphia Electric Company make a survey of the situation.

Myron W. Harris, Esq., reported progress in the matter of borough zoning, and Robert May told of plans for street repairs for the next year or two.

Robert Carter reported investigating possible places for dumping borough trash, and suggested a spot at Morrisville that is being filled up in this manner.

Senator Edward Martin Springs Convention Sensation

MOTORIST ALSO SUES

DOYLESTOWN, June 23—Two libels in divorce in which one of the respondents is serving with the occupation troops in Germany, and a Phoenixville motorist who is suing for $5,000 have been filed in the Court of Common Pleas here.

Claiming damages amounting to $5,000, William M. Zeiner, 559 Nutt road, Phoenixville, has named Tank Truck Rentals, Inc., Broad street, Phila., and Carl DeHaven, the defendants in an action in trespass.

The plaintiff was operating his car on Route 309, near Sellersville, in a northern direction and Carl DeHaven was driving the defendant's oil truck south on the same highway when they figured in a collision February 14.

Emanuel W. Levy, who entered the Army July 21, 1942, and is now with the Occupation Troops in Germany, has been named the respondent in a libel in divorce begun by his wife, Josephine L. Levy, 8th and Chestnut streets, Perkasie. They were married July 9, 1938, in Sellersville, by Rev. J. R. Shepley. The respondent and libellant separated April 7, 1946.

Mrs. Flora Virginia Reraback, 452 North Main st., Sellersville, has begun an action in divorce against her husband, Joseph J. Reraback, 108 Fleming, Harrington, Del. They were married Feb. 1923 in Elkton, Md., by Rev. D. F. Lockerie.

Don't Throw Glass or Other
Debris Into Silver Lake

Frequenters of the Silver Lake area are cautioned about throwing debris on the beach and into the water. An appeal is made by the Bristol Blood Donors for a strict observance of this rule. Do not throw glass, nails or any debris into the lake.

A small boy, the other day, sustained a severe injury to his foot by stepping on a broken bottle which had been tossed into the water and was obscured from view.

The lad's foot was severely cut and the outcome of the injury is not as yet known. This was all due to the carelessness of some individual who threw that bottle into the water.

State Police from the Langhorne barracks are now patrolling the area at frequent intervals.

COVETED CERTIFICATE

PALESTINE 'TOUGHEST'

"The world isn't such a big place after all," is the opinion voiced today by Robert Y. Edwards, who operates a federally-licensed amateur radio station with the call W3MZY at his home at Elm street, RD 2, Bristol.

He has been awarded the coveted WAC (Worked-all-continents) certificate of the International Amateur Radio Union for having communicated with at least one amateur station on each of the six continental areas of the world, North America, South America, Africa, Europe, Asia, and Oceania.

Edwards has been in the "ham" business for 17 years, and it took him that long to contact the six continents. "However," he said, "it only actually took me a year to get all six of them." The six countries he contacted were: Labrador, Belgium, Palestine, New Zealand, French Morocco, and Brazil.

"The toughest one to contact was Palestine," said Edwards. "It's about 6,000 miles away and there aren't too many 'hams' in that area, anyhow. I've gathered quite a few international friends through this business; some of them are located in England, France, Brazil, and the British West Indies."

"I had an unusual but gratifying experience a while ago when I took a message from a 'ham' in Italy who had a message for a fellow in Baltimore, Md.," said Edwards. "The message was one of thanks to this fellow as he had procured some needed medicines and had sent them to this radio man in Italy."

Edwards first started his station in Bloomfield, N. J., in 1930. He moved to Bristol 11 years ago and opened his "shack" then. The only lapse in operating this station came during the war when the government ordered all stations to close down.

The testator who died May 30, stipulated that Mrs. Charles Cassanti, Maple Shade, should receive $50 a month. After her death, the estate will be inherited equally by a brother, William H. Dyer, and Bucks County Lodge No. 1129, Order of the Moose. The will was written April 29, and the Bristol Trust Company was named executor. Real estate is located at Dixon and Emily avenue, Crofton.

Judge Keller Refuses Jury

DOYLESTOWN, June 23—A Bristol Jewish Center was granted a charter in the Court of Common Pleas yesterday and a maennerchor for the purpose of cultivating German and English music and songs was chartered.

Upholding a practice which the Court in Bucks county has been following for years, President Judge Hiram H. Keller, in an opinion filed in the Court of Common Pleas, has refused a jury trial in a divorce case.

President Judge Hiram H. Keller has granted a charter to Bristol Jewish Center of Ahavath Achim for the purpose of establishing and maintaining a synagogue for religious, social and recreational purposes and to strengthen the tradition of Judaism.

The charter, which is being recorded in the Recorder of Deeds office, bears the names of 47 incorporators, mostly from Bristol. Several being from Philadelphia and Crofton.

Three Bristolians, Louis Dries, Fond and Mill st.; Max R. Seigel, 236 Mill street, and Julius Sobel, 214 Jefferson ave., are named as the directors. Cash assets were listed at $175.00.

The charter was registered May 3 in Harrisburg after being applied for in the local courts.

For the purpose of cultivating German and English music and songs and beneficial purposes, the Newtown Maennerchor, Sycamore st. and Jefferson ave., has been granted a charter signed by President Judge Keller.

The incorporators are Charles Jones, Walter J. Lefferts, Horace F. Tranter and Charles Braun, all of Newtown, and Clement Righter, Langhorne. Trustees are Walter Jones, Charles Braun and Quentin Carver.

President Judge Keller has refused a petition asking for a jury trial filed by William B. Mellor, Jr., of Newtown, who has been named the respondent in a libel in divorce filed by his wife, Edith Gobel Mellor, Pineville-Brownburg road, near Wood Hill, September 4, 1947. The respondent-husband filed an answer to his wife's libel in divorce on February 4, this year.

The libellant insisted in her answer that to have their divorce answered before a jury and judge and at a trial "it would become a matter of public report, gossip, would be humiliating and embarrassing to the children."

President Judge Keller, in his opinion, quoting certain laws and another Court, wrote: "A lawyer's office makes a better laundry for washing the family linens than a court

The vegetable garden also was quite extensive and claiming the attention of the visitors were long rows of Thomas Laxton peas, the pods of which were well filled. A number of plants native to the New Jersey barrens were also noted.

The next meeting of the society will be held on the grounds of the Friends' meeting house, here, on July 17, when Mrs. Paul H. Buckingham, Ivyland, will give papers from a naturalist's diary, and Harold T. Green, curator of the museum of the Academy of Natural Sciences, Philadelphia, will give an illustrated talk on his recent trip to Africa to which place he went on the interests of the academy.

By William Theis
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent
CONVENTION HALL, PHILADELPHIA, June 23—(INS)—The Republican National Convention drives to its crucial point today—the nomination of the GOP candidate for President of the United States.

The terrific confidence of victory in November which has surcharged the conclave since it began last Monday is being hammered home again by the speakers to be heard before nominations open.

Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., of Massachusetts, chairman of the Resolutions Committee, likewise sounded the victory keynote in presenting a GOP platform calling for "collective security," new tax cuts, prosperity through free enterprise, and stern opposition to Communism.

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, after a hectic night of activity among handlers of the rival candidates, has the nomination within his grasp unless a real political miracle stops him.

Meanwhile, Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana, House majority leader, asserted in his message to the convention:

"This election is not a mere strife between political parties. It is a decisive battle between those who believe in the American way of life and those who would substitute totalitarian practices."

"This campaign is not a mere political campaign. It is a mobilization of all our talents and energies for the America in which we believe."

Halleck promised that a Republican Congress, cooperating with a Republican president, will complete the job of throwing out the "New Deal termites"—the planners, the plotters, and the borers from within—who, he said, "have been in every nook and cranny of our national house."

SEEK BETTER WATER

Out Need of Improved
Protection

APPEAR AT COUNCIL

LANGHORNE, June 23—That a better water supply be furnished to improve fire protection conditions here was asked by Charles Paul and Charles Wainwright, representing Langhorne Fire Company. The request was placed before borough council a few nights ago.

Council took the matter into consideration, and received suggestions from firemen on the subject. Mr. Paul told of the fire company's plan to get new apparatus, which, he said, will be delivered in about six months.

It was noted that 80 percent of the fire calls are from out-of-town, and that most of them are for grass fires. Construction of a tower to be used in the drying of hose was also taken into consideration.

Robert Neely received permission to make connections with the water system for a new house he plans to build.

Members of council showed interest in the formation of a county association of boroughs. Council was requested by the Kauffman Brothers for better lighting on Green street, and suggestion was made that the Philadelphia Electric Company make a survey of the situation.

Myron W. Harris, Esq., reported progress in the matter of borough zoning, and Robert May told of plans for street repairs for the next year or two.

Robert Carter reported investigating possible places for dumping borough trash, and suggested a spot at Morrisville that is being filled up in this manner.

WORTHINGTON-CARNES

EDGELEY, June 23—Mr. and Mrs. William H. Carnes announce the marriage of their daughter, Frances, to Mr. Stanley L. Worthington, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley M. Worthington. The marriage took place at Elkton, Md., on June 14th. A week's honeymoon was spent by the two on a motor trip through the New England states.

Senator Edward Martin Springs Convention Sensation

MOTORIST ALSO SUES

DOYLESTOWN, June 23—Two libels in divorce in which one of the respondents is serving with the occupation troops in Germany, and a Phoenixville motorist who is suing for $5,000 have been filed in the Court of Common Pleas here.

Claiming damages amounting to $5,000, William M. Zeiner, 559 Nutt road, Phoenixville, has named Tank Truck Rentals, Inc., Broad street, Phila., and Carl DeHaven, the defendants in an action in trespass.

The plaintiff was operating his car on Route 369, near Sellersville, in a northern direction and Carl DeHaven was driving the defendant's oil truck south on the same highway when they figured in a collision February 14.

Emanuel W. Levy, who entered the Army July 21, 1942, and is now with the Occupation Troops in Germany, has been named the respondent in a libel in divorce begun by his wife, Josephine L. Levy, 8th and Chestnut streets, Perkasie. They were married July 9, 1938, in Sellersville, by Rev. J. R. Shepley. The respondent and libellant separated April 7, 1946.

Mrs. Flora Virginia Keraback, 452 North Main st., Sellersville, has begun an action in divorce against her husband, Joseph J. Keraback, 168 Fleming, Harrington, Del. They were married Feb. 1923 in Elkton, Md., by Rev. D. E. Lockebier.

LAD INJURED ON FLOAT

Russell Killian, N. Radcliffe St., Edgely, sustained an injury to his knee while on a float along the Delaware River, yesterday. Bucks Co. Rescue Squad removed him to Abington Hospital. Other patients transported in the squad ambulances are: Mrs. Vincent Balesiri to her Fond street home from Harrison Hospital; William H. Watson, Morrisville, to Abington Hospital, to have a cast removed from his hip; Mrs. Donald Morris, Spruce street, a victim of appendicitis, to Abington Hospital; and Fred Harms, West Bristol, home from Abington Hospital.

CORRECTION

In the M. E. H. Locker Company ad which appeared in yesterday's Courier the size of the Crosley Frostmaster was given as 32 cu. ft. This should have read "A case of Frozen Food and a year's Locker Rent Free at the M. E. H. Locker Co. with the purchase of a Crosley Frostmaster, size 32 cu. ft. (enough space to normally hold a two month's supply of frozen food), price $156.50 delivered."

Don't Throw Glass or Other
Debris Into Silver Lake

Frequenters of the Silver Lake area are cautioned about throwing debris on the beach and into the water. An appeal is made by the Bristol Blood Donors for a strict observance of this rule. Do not throw glass, nails or any debris into the lake.

A small boy, the other day, sustained a severe injury to his foot by stepping on a broken bottle which had been tossed into the water and was obscured from view. The lad's foot was severely cut and the outcome of the injury is not as yet known. This was all due to the carelessness of some individual who threw that bottle into the water.

State Police from the Langhorne barracks are now patrolling the area at frequent intervals.

COVETED CERTIFICATE
GAINED BY 'HAM' HERERobert Y. Edwards, Bristol
R. D., Makes Contacts
On All Continents

PALESTINE 'TOUGHEST'

"The world isn't such a big place after all," is the opinion voiced today by Robert Y. Edwards, who operates a federally-licensed amateur radio station with the call W3MZY at his home at Elm street, RD 2, Bristol.

He has been awarded the coveted WAC (Worked-all-continents) certificate of the International Amateur Radio Union for having communicated with at least one amateur station on each of the six continental areas of the world, North America, South America, Africa, Europe, Asia, and Oceania.

Edwards has been in the "ham" business for 17 years, and it took him that long to contact the six continents. "However," he said, "it only actually took me a year to get all six of them." The six countries he contacted were: Labrador, Belgium, Palestine, New Zealand, French Morocco, and Brazil.

"The toughest one to contact was Palestine," said Edwards. "It's about 6,000 miles away and there aren't too many 'hams' in that area, anyhow. I've gathered quite a few international friends through this business; some of them are located in England, France, Brazil, and the British West Indies."

"I had an unusual but gratifying experience a while ago when I took a message from a 'ham' in Italy who had a message for a fellow in Baltimore, Md.," said Edwards. "The message was one of thanks to this fellow as he had procured some needy medicines and had sent them to this radio man in Italy."

Edwards first started his station in Bloomfield, N. J., in 1930. He moved to Bristol 11 years ago and opened his "shack" then. The only lapse in operating this station came during the war when the government ordered all stations to close down.

Judge Keller Refuses Jury
Trial in Divorce
Libel

DOYLESTOWN, June 23—A Bristol Jewish Center of Ahavath Achim has been granted a charter in the Court of Common Pleas yesterday and a maennerchor for the purpose of cultivating German and English music and songs was chartered.

Upholding a practice which the Court in Bucks county has been following for years, President Judge Hiram H. Keller, in an opinion filed in the Court of Common Pleas, has refused a jury trial in a divorce case.

President Judge Hiram H. Keller has granted a charter to Bristol Jewish Center of Ahavath Achim for the purpose of establishing and maintaining a synagogue for religious, social and recreational purposes and to strengthen the tradition of Judaism.

The charter, which is being recorded in the Recorder of Deeds office, bears the names of 47 incorporators, mostly from Bristol. Several being from Philadelphia and Crofton.

Three Bristolians, Louis Dries, Fond and Mill st.; Max R. Seigel, 236 Mill street, and Julius Sobel, 214 Jefferson ave., are named as the directors. Cash assets were listed at $1,500.

The charter was registered May 3 in Harrisburg after being applied for in the local courts.

For the purpose of cultivating German and English music and songs and beneficial purposes, the Newtown Maennerchor, Sycamore st. and Jefferson ave., has been granted a charter signed by President Judge Keller.

The incorporators are Charles Jones, Walter J. Lefferts, Horace F. Tranter and Charles Braun, all of Newtown, and Clement Righter, Langhorne. Trustees are Walter Jones, Charles Braun and Quentin Carver.

President Judge Keller has refused a petition asking for a jury trial filed by William B. Mellor, Jr., of Newtown, who has been named the respondent in a libel in divorce filed by his wife, Edith Gobel Mellor, Pineville-Brownburg road, near Wood Hill, September 4, 1947. The respondent-husband filed an answer to his wife's libel in divorce on February 4, this year.

The libellant insisted in her answer that to have their divorce aired before a jury and judge and at a trial "it would become a matter of public report, gossip, would be humiliating and embarrassing to the children."

President Judge Keller, in his opinion, quoting certain laws and another Court, wrote: "A lawyer's office makes a better laundry for washing the family linens than a court room."

The Court added for years it has been the practice of the local courts to have divorce hearings handled by a master and that it has proved satisfactory.

State Police Say:

Summertime always seems too short, doesn't it? Well, don't run the risk of clipping it even shorter by taking chances with your safety at the beach, pool or other recreation spot. Know the limits of exertion and exposure to the sun, and stay with them. When you're driving, take it easy and make the most of your pleasure. To keep summer pleasant, keep it safe.

CANCEL GAMES DUE TO WET GROUNDS

The games of the Bristol Suburban league, scheduled for last evening, were called off because of wet grounds.

One game will be played this evening, with the Lewis Lodge nine meeting the Langhorne Legion, on the latter's field. Teams of the Bristol Youth league will be using both Memorial Park and Leedom's field.

Two crucial games will be on tap tomorrow evening. St. Ann's team will play the Hibernians on Memorial Park field. Should the "Hibs" beat the Saints they will be but one-half game away from second place. The other game sees Langhorne Legion meeting the Democrat Club in the fight for fourth position.

The Suburban league race this season is the closest in years. The leaders, St. Ann's and Goodwill, have both changed positions several times, with the firemen holding a one-game edge at the present time. The other three teams, Democrat Club, Hibernians and Langhorne Legion, have been jockeying back and forth for several weeks.

Voltz-Texaco, with one-half the schedule to go, still has an opportunity of getting into a playoff position, while the Lewis Lodge and Fifth Ward will need to have a long winning streak to get into "money" position.

The Bristol Youth league is also having a close race with four teams being tied for second spot and the fifth team close behind. Only the Junior Hibernians are unbeaten in this circuit, while Penn A. C. and Fourth Ward are winless.

Bell's Aces, winners of their last two games, meets the Hibs this evening on Memorial Park field, while the Croydon A. C. plays Penn A. C. on Leedom's field. The other games are at Newportville and on Township's field.

LA BAR CAPTURES 4TH RACE OF SEASON

The Lakanoo Boat Club held the sixth race of the current season on Sunday. Since the sun had made one of its rare appearances of the summer and the wind was blowing steadily, the race committee decided on a 3 1/2 mile course.

This was the longest course used so far this year and Cliff LaBar by completing it in one hour, 3 minutes gained his fourth triumph of the season. John Dodds placed 2nd and Pete Ross captured third place.

Because of a failing wind, a second race was not held, but this will be made up at later date.

After its meeting on Sunday evening the Race Committee announced that the handicap series would start on Sunday, July 11. In this series all contesting boats are given time handicaps since they range from the 14 foot Dusters to the 28 foot Class "E" scows.

All sailboat skippers from this area are invited by the Lakanoo Boat Club Race Committee to take part in these handicap races.

Robert Johnson Is Serving Aboard Tender

Robert Johnson, Jr., stewardman, U.S.N., son of Mrs. Josephine Davis, 703 Clymer street, is serving aboard the submarine tender U.S.S. Nerous, which participated in recent Pacific fleet inter-type exercises.

During the maneuvers the Nerous served as press and camera observation ship covering the sinking of the old cruiser U.S.S. Salt Lake City, which underwent a series of airplane, surface ship and submarine attacks.

The Salt Lake City was ultimately taken to the bottom by two torpedoes fired from submarines operating under the command of Commander Submarine Squadron Seven, on board the Nerous.

Johnson entered the naval service January 4, 1943, and received recruit training at the Naval Air Technical Training Center, Memphis, Tenn.

BRISTOL MOOSE WINS OVER WEST CHESTER

Bristol Moose defeated the strong West Chester softball nine by the score of 8 to 4. This is the first time this club has been defeated in three years of Moose competition. The Bristol boys' bats were just a little too heavy for the West Chester outfit. The playing field was very good for each team, each only committing one error. The pitching was well done by Claude Distler with Gene Mount doing the receiving.

JEFFERSON A. C. DEFEATS FLEETWING ESTATES

Jeffersonians plowed through the Fleetwing Estates softball team last evening in a Bristol Twilight Softball League game with a winning score of 18-6 which was witnessed by a good crowd.

Start Move to Annex Edgeboro to Newtown

NEWTOWN, June 23—A move has started here for extension of Newtown borough to include the Edgeboro tract, it being anticipated that Newtown borough council will prepare an ordinance providing for such.

The proposition calls for continuing the borough line up Congress street to Frost lane, east to School House road, north to the J. Walker Burns property and west to a continuation of the North State street line.

At a recent meeting in charge of Raymond Taylor and Clinton Greenlee, of council's ordinance committee, they being assisted by borough solicitor Charles W. Roberts.

It was explained the purpose of the meeting was to give persons interested in the proposal an opportunity to be heard on the matter. Council the forepart of last month received a petition from property owners on the tract to have that section taken into the borough.

Mr. Taylor explained the borough is not soliciting properties to the borough, but in view of the petition, sought to determine the opinion of all outlying adjacent property owners.

Edgeboro, which has been formed from the former Richardson farm, is laid out in 54 large lots, of which 23 have been sold. Three houses have been erected, three are nearing completion, and foundations for two more are being laid.

Republican National Convention Drives To Its Crucial Point Today

Mrs. Robert W. Macaulay, assistant chairman of the Republican National Committee, told the Convention that the Democratic Party is falling apart and is "incapable of pulling itself together again." She added:

"We have seen the awful consequences of political irresponsibility—we have seen it abroad in its worst form; and we have seen it at home, where it is being halted, just short of disaster for our country—halted by a dynamic Republican party."

Sen. Harry P. Cain of Washington, speaking as a veteran of World War II, declared that if the GOP fails to win in November "we shall have brought lasting and great harm to our nation, and the world."

Cain warned: "Our failure would so stimulate the world revolution which surrounds us that freedom and free institutions might well disappear forever.

The International News Service poll of delegations gives Dewey 333 delegates on the first ballot, and somewhere between a certain 378 and a probable 466 on the second ballot. It takes 518 votes to win the nomination.

If Dewey now fails to win, he will shatter another 92-year-old tradition of the Republican Party by being the first candidate to lose the nomination after getting more than 400 votes in a party convention.

A wild scramble is going on within the Dewey organization for the vice-presidential nomination. Dewey himself announced that he has made "no commitments, no promises and no pledges" in his campaign for the nomination. He said he would accept the "choice of the convention" for a running-mate.

Top Dewey managers were forecasting a Dewey-Green ticket. Giving second place to Gov. Dwight H. Green, of Illinois, the multi-decorated hero of World War I. There was a bare possibility that Green might not be available. In that case, Rep. Charles Halleck, of Indiana, House majority leader, was mentioned most frequently.

The Dewey blitz began when Sen. Edward Martin of Pennsylvania withdrew as his state's favorite son and gave his support to the New Yorker. Martin appealed to all his friends to join the Dewey bandwagon.

The announcement threw the rival camps into consternation. Then they began erecting barriers to halt Dewey's progress.

Taft, Stassen, Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg, of Michigan, Gov. Earl Warren, of California, Gov. Alfred Driscoll, of New Jersey, and Sen. Raymond Baldwin, of Connecticut, all resisted the Dewey drive.

Today's program—morning: Call to order at 11 a. m. EDT, by Speaker Joseph W. Martin, permanent chairman.

Singing of national anthem and invocation by Bishop A. Preston Shaw, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Baltimore.

Addresses by Rep. Charles Halleck, of Indiana, House majority leader; Mrs. Robert W. McCauley, assistant chairman of the National Committee; Ralph Becker, president, National Young Republican
